Say the word 'Spring' and images of carpets of daffodils, gambolling lambs, rushing streams, nesting birds, buds, crocuses, bright skies, new beginnings and high spirits fill our minds. This will be an evening of best-loved poems and beautiful songs by writers and composers inspired by the springtime. Wordsworth, Rossetti, Dickinson, Blake, Lawrence, Shakespeare, Vivaldi, Beethoven, Grieg, Purcell, Vaughan Williams and more. Performed by a group of local musicians and poetry lovers, the programme is packed with musical and poetic gems.
